

I want my right to privacy and my right to choose protected. I want the do not call law to remain as is. I value my peace and serenity in my home and if I want to purchase something, I should have the freedom to choose the way in which I make that purchase. Telemarketers who call when they want trying to coerce me into making a purchase are harrassing me and I do not appreciate the violation.